

Looking for Part-time Work with Flexible Hours?

Be a part of an exciting opportunity as a Speech-to-text Captionist

Deaf Services Center's Speech-to-text program utilizes C-Print® software, a technology developed at the National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID) located at Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT). C-Print is a technology providing communication access for individuals who are d/Deaf or Hard-of-Hearing across the country. Speech-to-text captionists work in medical, education and various other community settings.

Don't miss this challenging and rewarding opportunity!

Minimum Qualifications:

- * Typing speed of 60wpm
- * Basic Computer skills
- * Self-motivated and Dependable
- * Strong English Skills (phonetics emphasis)
- * Outgoing personality and the Ability to work with others

What You Will Receive:

- * Online training directly from RIT
- * Reimbursement of training costs after completing 250 hours of field work with DSC
- * Mentoring with an experienced captionist

For Additional Information Contact:

Deb Brockman
614-841-1991
deb@dsc.org

